

Cozumel Mexico Dive Adventure November 30 to December 7, 2019

Come and join Brass Anchor Scuba Center for an unforgettable dive adventure to Cozumel Mexico. December is Eagle Ray season which provides a unique opportunity to see these aquatic marvels up close and personal.

Highlights

- The coral formations and marine life are thriving in the Cozumel region. Expect to see extremely healthy coral walls and amazing coral formations and topography.
- The visibility in Cozumel is usually untouched by most dive destinations boasting 200ft on a good day. Most dives in Cozumel are drift dives. Therefore no kicking is required, just sit back and enjoy the ride :)
- Loggerheads, Hawks Bill, and Green Turtles are seen frequently in Cozumel as well as Nurse Sharks, Morays, Eagle Rays, Sting Rays, and more.
- An Optional Adventure Day will be scheduled to see a Bull Shark feeding and a possible Cenote Dive in Playa Del Carmen at an additional cost.*
