

Coco's Island Costa Rica Adventure

October 15th – October 25th, 2022

Schooling hammerheads, white-tip sharks, Tiger Sharks, Silver Tips, Galapagos sharks, Silky sharks, mantas, Eagle and Mobula Rays, tuna and even whale sharks and even Froggie's call Cocos home.

Escape with Brass Anchor to Cocos Island on our Costa Rica liveaboard scuba diving adventure! Cocos is a lush, green uninhabited island resting 342 miles off Costa Rica's Pacific coast. Rocky pinnacles surrounding Cocos are beacons for big animals and big action. Schooling hammerheads, countless white-tip sharks, mantas, tuna and even whale sharks call Cocos home.

Join Brass Anchor and the Aggressor for some an amazing adventure. Coco's is top 5 dive sites in the world for big pelagic animals and sharks. Truly an incredible place. The Okeanos Aggressor departs from Puntarenas, Costa Rica. Boarding and departure depends on the tide schedule. Immediately after boarding for our Costa Rica liveaboard scuba diving adventure, the yacht departs for its 36 hour crossing to Cocos Island. There are multiple dives throughout the day for an average of 24 dives on 10 night charters. No night diving is currently offered at Cocos Island. This is an Epic adventure that you will likely never forget. Join us and experience nature in its purest form nearly untouched by humans.
